Questions:

Question 1: Is the focus of this building for nursing training?

Answer: The focus of the building is not just for nursing training. The building will be an inter-professional health education training facility for medicine, health professions and dentistry.

Question 2: Is the Skills lab a synonym for Simulation Lab? If not will simulation be a part of the lab and if so what kind of simulation?

Answer: No the Skills Lab is not a synonym for Simulation Lab. Yes, the Skills Lab will be used for simulation. The Skills Lab will be a high-tech learning space that not only has beds, standard hospital furniture and equipment, but it will also have patient simulators and other specialized equipment. The Skills Lab will be a highly technical and specialized area, and the functional programming of this space is part of the Prime Design Consultant's scope of work.
